

How to give Dropbox a role in your next film.

Screenwriting

Keep scripts in Dropbox to easily track your edits and collect notes from your collaborators.

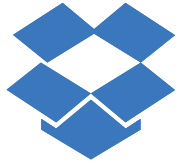

Development/Financing

Compile director's statements and budget projections for funding.
Share with a simple link.

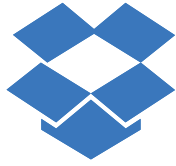

Pre-Production

Organize images and stills in Dropbox Paper to easily build clean look books.

Casting

Request headshots and they'll automatically go in a folder to share with casting directors, agents, and producers.

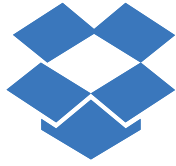

Production

Post shoot schedules and keep cast and crew on the same page.

Post-Production

Wherever they are,
composers, editors, and directors can collaborate at the same time.

Exhibition and Distribution

Send links to trailers, scenes, and interview clips to anyone. They can watch in their browser. No Dropbox account needed.

Marketing

Keep key art, promo materials, and press kits in one place. View and share them from your phone.
